Application for School Association Membership

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Namoi Valley Christian School Association.

Association membership is available to all Christian members of the Namoi Valley Christian School Community who subscribe to the statement of purposes contained in the Rules of NVCS Incorporate.

The Namoi Valley Christian School Board is responsible for considering all membership applications based on your initial application and interview.

To submit your application please complete this form and return it, together with your Minister/Pastor reference, to a member of the Namoi Valley Christian School Board. The Board will then arrange a time with you to discuss your application. If you have any questions relating to this application please contact a Board Member who will be able to assist.

Information collected may be distributed to other Association Members for administrative purposes.
